

I want to register a strong objection to allowing ringless voicemail calls to be made. In the spirit of all the 'no call' options that we have to limit intrusion and ensure our privacy, this should be something that should not be allowed. Phones and messages should be for the use and privilege of the owner, not vendors or solicitors or other uninvited callers. Please stop this practice!

Pat Easterbrook